

Televerde 2025 Workforce Outcomes: Reducing Recidivism Through Employment

Second Chance Month | Arizona & Indiana Programs

Televerde's prison-to-workforce model prepares incarcerated women for careers through professional training and real-world experience. The following results reflect outcomes from women who transitioned from incarceration to the workforce over the past year.

Key Results

88%

Employed within 90 Days

$41,169

Average Starting Salary

93%

Certified at Release

<5%

Recidivism

Key Outcomes

- 44 women transitioned to the workforce

Where They Work

- Sales Development, Marketing Ops, Demand Gen.
- Fortune 500, SaaS, and B2B companies.

"Televerde's model is designed to mirror a real business environment, giving women the experience and expectations they need to step into professional roles after release."

Vince Barsolo, CEO of Televerde

Simple 3-step flow

Supported by the Televerde Foundation for reentry, career development, and stability. These outcomes are driven by real work experience inside, combined with the support needed to sustain employment after release.

5 in-prison centers (AZ + IN)

30+ years operating model

$14B+ revenue generated for clients

Built in partnership with state and correctional leaders in Arizona and Indiana to reduce recidivism and expand workforce participation.